

Web Privacy Policy

KIPP Houston greatly respects the privacy of users of this website. You do not have to give us any personal information to visit this website. We may collect and store statistics and other information about the online activities of our visitors on an aggregated, collective basis. However, in these instances, we do not obtain personally identifiable information about you. We may use aggregated information to operate and enhance our site for marketing and promotional purposes.

On some pages, you may make online donations or purchase tickets to special events. These pages are secure and encrypted in order to protect your personal information. The types of personal information collected on these pages are:

- Name
- Address
- Email Address
- Phone Number
- Credit/Debit Card Information

On the homepage, you may sign up to receive periodic emails from KIPP Houston. KIPP Houston utilizes Constant Contact, a third-party email marketing service, to send these email updates. You may unsubscribe at any time. Constant Contact's privacy policy is found here:
